

ANNUAL PROGRESS REPORT BIBLIOGRAPHY

CARE AT THE END OF LIFE: A PUBLIC/PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Grant Number: 36223

Report Period: 1/1/2001 to 12/31/2002

Grant Period: 1/1/1999 to 12/31/2002

Bibliography

PUBLICATIONS

Books and Reports

- First Annual Interim Report on Access to End of Life Care in Maine.* MCPCH. Prepared for Committee on Health and Human Services. May 1999.
- Second Annual Interim Report on Access to End of Life Care in Maine.* MCPCH. Prepared for Committee on Health and Human Services. October 2000.
- Partner Activity Highlights.* Excerpts of partner activity for Year Two.
- Monthly Progress Reports for Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.* MCPCH. January through December 2000.
- Facilitator's Handbook for Focus Groups and Community Dialogues.* Coalition for Dialogue on Death and Dying. 50 copies Summer and Fall 2000.
- End of Life Coalitions: A Manual for Building Successful Coalitions Around End of Life.* Coalition for Dialogue on Death and Dying. 500 copies distributed Spring 2000.
- Palliative Care Workgroup Report.* Report to Maine Consortium for Comprehensive Cancer Control for the development of a Strategic Cancer Control Plan. May 2000.
- * Access to End of Life Care in Maine. Maine Hospice Council. Prepared for Committee on Health and Human Services. December 2002.
- * Project Activity Highlights. Excerpts of partner activity for Year Three.
- * Composite Monthly Progress Reports for Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. MCPCH. January through December 2001.
- * Statewide End of Life Resources Directory. Prepared by the Maine Center for End of Life Care.
- * Interfaith Dialogues for End of Life Ministry. A manual for building successful, faith-based ministries to address death, dying and life at the end of life.
- * Advance Care Planning Program Activity Report, January through December 2002
- * Updated Regional Resource Guides.
- * Inpatient Hospice Facilities in Maine: A White Paper. May, 2001.
- * Comparison of Medicaid Hospice Benefit and Medicare Hospice Benefit. June 2002.
- * End of Life Care in Corrections: A Handbook for Caregivers and Managers. Presented to participants at the End of Life Care and Corrections Conference

NOTES:

* Denotes first time listing

- * Barriers to End-of-Life Care: Perspectives from the State of Maine. An Executive Summary of a series of public hearings.
- * Care at the End of Life: A Public/Private Partnership. Maine Hospice Council presentation for the CSP Grant Wrap-up Conference.
- * Hospice Opportunities in Physician Education. UNE presentation for the CSP Grant Wrap-up Conference.
- * Final Report: Creating a Model Hospice Benefit for Maine's HMOs. Anthem and Muskie School of Public Service presentation for the CSP Grant Wrap-up Conference.
- * Improving Care at the End of Life. MMAF presentation for the CSP Grant Wrap-up Conference.
- * The Workplace Grief and Bereavement Project. A presentation of a project initiated by CSP Project Co-Director Larry Harcourt and conducted by Scott Douglas. Presentation made at the CSP Grant Wrap-up Conference.
- * Completed analysis of the nursing curriculum audit survey conducted by Carol Doane. Met with Carol and Kandyce Powell to discuss next steps.
- * Completed data entry and preliminary analysis for the Maine Council of Churches End of Life Care Survey and the Pastoral Counselor Survey on End-of-Life Care.
- * Maine Comprehensive Cancer Plan. Maine Cancer Consortium.

Training Materials

- * HOSPICE OF VNS: ADVANCE CARE PLANNING PROGRAM: One-Hour Community Presentation
- * HOSPICE OF VNS: ADVANCE CARE PLANNING PROGRAM: Two-Hour Professional In-Service
- * Program Objectives for All-Day (6 hour) Advance Care Planning In-Service

Brochures

- Maine Consortium for Palliative Care & Hospice: Honesty. Dignity. Comfort.* MCPCH. 2000.
- Guide to Central Maine Resources for Final Months of Life*. Before I Die Coalition. 2000.
- Guide to Southern Maine Resources for Final Months of Life*. York County Dialogue on Dying. 2000.
- Guide to Androscoggin County Resources for Final Months of Life*. Androscoggin County Dialogue on Dying. 2000.
- Guide to Midcoast Resources for the Final Months of Life*. Coalition for Dialogue on Death and Dying. 2000.

NOTES:

- * Denotes first time listing

Survey/Research Instruments

Memorial Symptom Assessment Scale – Patient Health Questionnaire. Distributed state-wide by the Maine Medical Assessment Foundation. Originally distributed May 1999, continued use in 2000.

Coalition Survey Tools: these are made available to Death & Dying Coalitions throughout the state for use in gathering information about their communities.
Organizational Analysis Instrument.
Community Dialogue Instrument.
Focus Group Instrument.

Congregational Dialogues Survey Tools
End of Life Survey. Sent to 800 clergy statewide and posted on website, October 2000.
Pastoral Counselor Survey on End-of-Life Care. Sent to 200 pastoral-care counselors and posted on website, October 2000.

Outcome Survey: State-Wide Dialogue on Death and Dying: What does Maine Want? Approximately 500 distributed statewide at coalition meetings and public hearings (following Moyers series) and posted on website.

Hospice Service Provider. Maine Hospice Council. Sent to all Hospice providers statewide to collect basic statistics on hospice care. September 2000.

Central Repository Surveys.
Survey of Grant Partners identifying potential resources.
Survey of Health Care Professionals identifying potential resources (800 sent).
Survey of respondents to second survey identifying resources (300 sent).

Survey on End-of-Life Care. Sent by Maine Health Care Association to nursing homes throughout the state.

Memorial Assessment Tool. Developed by physicians in the New Jersey Veterans Administration, used by Maine Medical Assessment Foundation in their continued project work. Included in first year bibliography.

Standardized chart assessment instrument for conference participants as tool to assist teams in identifying potential areas for improvement.

ZAP Pain Assessment Tool. Used in the Zero Acceptance of Pain study.

- * Epidemiological Data on Pain and Symptom Management Survey. Maine Medical Assessment Foundation
- * End of Life Care Survey. Maine Council of Churches.
- * Outcome Survey: State-Wide Dialogue on Death and Dying: What does Maine Want? A synopsis of returns. Coalition for Dialogue on Death and Dying.
- * Pastoral Counselor Survey on End-of-Life Care. Maine Council of Churches.
- * Nursing Curriculum Audit.

NOTES:

* Denotes first time listing

SPONSORED CONFERENCES, MEETINGS, AND WORKSHOPS

Six Congregational Dialogues. January through September 2000.

Borders of Life and Death. Modules of the Medical Humanities and Behavioral Medicine course presented for the class of 2002. January and February 2000.

Maine Cancer Consortium, Bureau of Health Palliation workgroup meeting to finalize goals, objectives, and strategies. Prioritized goals presented at all day Cancer Consortium Meeting. February 2000.

Five MCPCH meetings (minutes posted at www.mcpch.org):

February included a Hospice Pharmacy by John Grotton;

June included a discussion of the role of EMS personnel in end-of-life situations;

August featured a facilitated discussion regarding "Diversion of Oxycontin";

October included a discussion of the Medic-Alert Advance Directives Initiative;

December included discussion of the development of a Nursing Curriculum (curriculum audit in progress), the Prison Hospice Program, and the End of Life Omnibus bill.

Pieces of Hope: How Pediatric Hospice Supports Dying Children, Their Families and Communities. The Jason Program. March 2000.

RWJ Monitoring Site Visit. Regency Hotel Portland. March 2000.

Improving Care at the End of Life: Promises to Keep. Maine Hospital Association sponsored 4 programs, 1 in 1999, 3 in 2000:

? Session I-Dr. Ira Byok (and others) – November 1999.

? Session II: Promises to Keep: Improving Care at the End of Life. Dr. Joanne Lynn, Dr. Lachlan Forrow (and others) – March 2000.

? Session III-Dr. Joanne Lynn (and others) – June 2000.

? Session IV-Dr. Dr. Sean Morrison, Mt. Sinai – November 2000

Eighth Annual Diana Haney Memorial Cancer Conference. April 2000.

ZAP (Zero Acceptance of Pain). Wrap-up Conference. May 2000.

How We Die. An Interfaith dialogue held at St Bartholomew's Church in Cape Elizabeth. Presenter Dr Laurel Coleman. May 2000.

Women's Wellness Day. Kandyce Powell presented "In Touch With The Dying Process." June 2000.

Southern Maine Regional Hospice Program Meeting. OMNE. July 2000.

Maine Hospice Council Annual Meeting. Keynote speaker Myra Christopher. July 2000.

Enhancing Pain Practice: Complements to Therapy. Sixth Annual Maine Cancer Pain Symposium.

Consumer Evening, August 1; Pain Management: Your Body, Your Right, Your Choice: Advocating for Yourself and Those you Love. Presented by Pamela Bennett RN, BSN and Dana Crovo, MD

NOTES:

* Denotes first time listing

Morning Keynote: Harmonizing Traditional and Complementary Pain Management, Informing Consumer Choices. Pamela Bennett, RN, BSN
Afternoon Keynote: Hospice is a Place: The Role of Inpatient Hospices in Pain and Symptom Management. Dr. Richard Stephenson - Clinical Assistant Professor of Internal Medicine, Wake Forest University School of Medicine, Winston-Salem, NC; Medical Director, Hospice of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County, Winston-Salem, NC.

Ongoing meetings of the Palliative Care Workgroup, chaired by Kandyce Powell, to develop the palliative care section of the Bureau of Health's Strategic Cancer Plan. A draft plan presented September 2000. Final plan presentation scheduled for January 2001.

Prison Hospice Program initiated September 2000 with meetings with prison staff. Meetings and in-service trainings for remainder of year.

Moyers on Dying Community Dialogues. 29 community dialogues state-wide to discuss the Moyers series. September/October 2000.

Blaine House Tea honoring hospice professionals and volunteers. Sponsored by Maine Hospice Council, Home Care Alliance. Maine Consortium for Palliative Care and Hospice. Keynote speakers Senator Marge Kilkelly and Dr. Laurel Coleman. November 2000.

Connecting to Cancer Care. Kandyce Powell presented "Pain Management" November 2000.

Moyers Series follow-up call-in program on Maine Public Broadcasting. Kandyce Powell, Michael Murphy, Laurel Coleman. Video available from Central Repository. November 2000.

Comfort and Choice: Hospice Options for Pain Relief. The first of a series of workshops conducted by the Before I Die (BID) Coalition in Kennebec County. December 2000.

EPEC Trainings. January through December, 16 training sessions with average attendance of 50. Total attendance approximately 815 physicians and nurses.

Continued meetings with Maine Hospice Council and Home Care Alliance, to draft Medicaid Hospice legislation.

Continued meetings with ES Muskie School of Public Services and HMO Council to develop ideal hospice benefit. May through December.

Community Dialogues and Focus Groups. Death and Dying Coalitions. Local coalitions have been holding local events throughout the year.

* Advance Care Planning Program Facilitator Training. There were four 2-day training programs held in 2002. 86 Facilitators were trained (see Advance Care Planning Program Activity Report in Books & Reports section).

NOTES:

* Denotes first time listing

- * Advance Care Planning Trainings. 22 Advance Care Planning programs were held in 2002. 697 individuals received advance care planning education (see Advance Care Planning Program Activity Report in Books & Reports section).
- * Special Day for Special Folks. April 16, 2001. Augusta.
- * Compassionate Care at the End-of-Life. Co-sponsored by Department of Pastoral care at Maine Medical Center. Maine Council of Churches. May, 2001.
- * The Home Care Alliance, the Maine Hospice Council and the Maine Health Care Association cosponsored a workshop on May 23 on the hospice/nursing home connection.
- * Hospice and End of Life Care: Its Importance for Corrections and Law Enforcement in Maine. June 6, 2001.
- * Nurse Review Course. Maine Hospice Council. August 10, 2001.
- * Education In-service program Maine State Prison Staff regarding Bill Moyers series. September 6, 2001.
- * 2nd Annual Maine Cancer Pain Initiative Consumer Evening. Let's Talk About Pain. Featuring an IDT Panel to answer questions from attendees. September 25, 2001.
- * 7th Annual Maine Cancer Pain Symposium. Communication and Outcome Measures: The Keys to Success. Featuring Richard McQuellon, PhD., and Melanie Merriman, PhD, MBA. September 25, 26.
- * Annual Blaine House Tea honoring Hospice and Home Care providers in Maine. November 14, 2001.
- * Managing Hospice Programs Effectively Without Compromising Patient Care. Educational workshop for Hospice Providers, Augusta. November 14, 2001.
- * CSP Program Wrap Up Conference. December 11, 2001.
- * Respecting Choice: Advance Care Planning Course for Facilitators. October 21 & 28, 2002.
- * Maine Center for End-of-Life Care Retreat. February 8, 2002.
- * Work session regarding L.D. 2131, "An Act to Develop a Controlled Substances Prescription Monitoring & Intervention Program", Mar 5, 2002
- * Hospice Education Day. May 11, 2002, Belfast.
- * 3rd Annual Maine Cancer Pain Initiative Consumer Evening. The Role of Advocacy and Activism in Quality Pain Management. Featuring Susan M. Shinagawa and an IDT Panel for answering consumer questions. August, 20, 2002. Lewiston, Maine.
- * 8th Annual Maine Cancer Pain Symposium. Pain Management: Advocacy and Activism. Featuring Susan M. Shinagawa and an IDT Panel Presentation on Drug Diversion. August, 21, 2002. Lewiston, Maine.

NOTES:

* Denotes first time listing

- * Hosted a panel presentation for Russian delegation, coordination through Debra Andrews at Center for Global Opportunities. Panel included Bill Schneider, Marge Kilkelly, Barbara MacInnis, Ali Hilt-Last, and Steve D'Amato. October 30, 2002, Augusta.
- * EPEC Trainings: several trainings held throughout 2001 and 2002.

PRESENTATIONS

Advanced Pain Management. Promises to Keep: Improving Care at the End of Life. Augusta Civic Center. March 2000. Dr. Laurel Coleman.

Improving Pain Management. Promises to Keep: Improving Care at the End of Life. Augusta Civic Center. March 2000. Dr. Laurel Coleman.

Spirituality, Grief & Bereavement. Promises to Keep: Improving Care at the End of Life. Augusta Civic Center. March 2000. Dr. George Dreher

Attended AACPI Mid-Year Board Meeting. January 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

Approaching Death. Miles Home Care and Hospice. January 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

Several presentations to present a balanced view on the Physician Assisted Suicide discussion including participation at the February Public Hearing on LD2348. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

Personal Boundary Issues in Care-giving. Maine General Medical Center, Augusta. March 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

Where do we go from here? The 8th Annual Diana Haney Memorial Cancer Conference. April 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

Long Distance Care Giving: Care-Giver Guilt. Alford Center for Health Sciences, University of New England. April 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

Center for Disease Control. Interview regarding strategic planning process for Bureau of Health Comprehensive Cancer Plan. June 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

Palliative Care. University of Maine, Augusta. May 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

In Touch With the Dying Process. Women's Wellness Day. June 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

Hospice. University of Maine at Augusta class "Death & Dying". June 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

Medical Care at the End of Life: Tools and Resources for Physicians. University of New England. October 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

Pain Management. Connecting to Cancer Care Conference. November 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN

NOTES:

* Denotes first time listing

- Empowerment and Change*. Kandyce Powell. University of Maine, Augusta. December 2000. Kandyce A Powell, MSN
- Presentation to Maine HMO Council*. November 2000. Paul Saucier, University of New England & Kandyce Powell, MSN
- Congregational Dialogues: Larry J. Harcourt, MD
- Palliative Care and Pain Management*. January 2000.
 - How Can I Help*. February 2000.
 - Facilitator Training. March 2000.
 - How We Die*. May 2000.
 - Discussion Clergy Needs to Better Address End-of-Life Care Issues*. September 2000.
 - Focus Response to "On Our Own Terms" series. September 2000.
- University Course Guest Lectures: Larry J. Harcourt, MD
- Palliative Care*. University of New England. Presentation to medical students. February 2000.
 - Health Policy and End-of-Life Care*. Husson College. February 2000.
 - Ethics and End-of-Life Care*. University of Maine Augusta course "Death and Dying." May 2000.
 - End-of-Life Care – Policy Matters*. Simmons College Health Policy Class. September 2000.
- EPEC Presentations. Seven sessions between March and November 2000. Larry J. Harcourt, MD
- Ethics Committees and End-of-Life Care*. Maine Health Care Association Spring Conference. April. 2000. Larry J. Harcourt, MD
 - End-of-Life Care and the Community-State Partnership in Maine*. OMNE Annual Meeting. May 2000. Larry J. Harcourt, MD
 - Advanced Pain Management Strategies and End-of-Life Care*. Workshop with Steve D'Amato. Maine Cancer Pain Initiative Conference. August 2000. Larry J. Harcourt, MD
 - Ethics ad the End-of-Life*. Maine Health Care Association Annual Meeting. October 2000. Larry J. Harcourt, MD
- Community Dialogue: How to Conduct Interviews with Dying Individuals. Organization of Maine Nurse Executives (OMNE) monthly meeting. May 2000. Michael J. Murphy, Ph.D.
- End of Life Care in Maine*: State-wide telephone call-in show broadcast on Maine Public Television (video available). Michael Murphy, Kandyce Powell, Laurel Coleman. Bibliography entry is letter from Maine Public Television. November 2000. Michael J. Murphy, Ph.D.
- Coalition Strategic Planning Presentations. Androscoggin County Coalition (4); York County Coalition (3); Before I Die Coalition (3); Knox County Coalition (1). Michael J. Murphy, Ph.D.

NOTES:

* Denotes first time listing

- * Dimensions of Patient Comfort. Dealing with Grief & Bereavement as Preventative Medicine. Utilizing Hospice Care Effectively. Three presentation made at Patient Comfort & Compassionate Care Conference, Portland, March 9, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Approaching Death. Miles Home Health and Hospice, Damariscotta. March 13, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Best Practices in Pain Management. E.S. Muskie School of Public Service, Augusta. April 3, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Scope of Hospice in Maine – Bangor. April 6, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * End of Life Care in Maine Presented to case managers in Yarmouth. April 10, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Process of Grieving. Miles Home Health and Hospice Bereavement Training, Damariscotta. April 24, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Barriers to End-of-Life Care: Perspectives from the State of Maine. ELNEC Conference and Kappa Zeta, Sigma Theta Tau Induction Ceremony. April, 2001. Leslie Nicoll.
- * Pain Management. Living With Cancer Conference, Augusta. May 2, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Palliative Care. University of Maine Augusta, Augusta. June 4, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Hospice. University of Maine Augusta, Augusta. June 20, 2001, Kandyce Powell.
- * Presentation for MaineShare at Coastal Enterprise Institute, Wiscasset. October 1, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Approaching Death. Miles Home Care & Hospice, Damariscotta. October 9, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Hospice & Long-Term Care. Maine Health Care Association Conference. October 12, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Personal Death Awareness. Grief/Loss/Transition. Two presentations at Miles Home Health & Hospice, Damariscotta. October 23, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Hospice. Bangor Theological Seminary, Bangor. October 23, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Status of End-of-Life Care in Maine. LPN conference, Newport. October 26, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Hospice. Greenwood Center, Sanford. October 31, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Looking at Grief & Bereavement Support as Preventive Medicine. Univ. of Southern Maine Continuing Education, Portland. November 1, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Facing Our Losses. November 3, 2001. York. Kandyce Powell.
- * Hospice. Bureau of Elder & Adult Services, Augusta. November 9, 2001. Kandyce Powell.

NOTES:

* Denotes first time listing

- * Process of Grieving. Miles Home Health & Hospice, Damariscotta. November 13, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Pain: Let's Talk About It. Connecting to Cancer Care, Nov 16, 2001. Kandyce Powell and Steve D'Amato
- * Presentation for Hospice surveyors in Dept. of Licensing & Certification. Nov 26, 2001. Kandyce Powell
- * Issues of Empowerment & Change for Nursing. University of Maine Augusta, Augusta. December 13, 2001. Kandyce Powell.
- * Women & Caregiving: A Spiritual Perspective. Skowhegan, Feb 2, 2002, Kandyce Powell
- * End-of-Life Care: A Spiritual Perspective. St. Andrews Hospital, Mar 19, 2002, Kandyce Powell.
- * Grief & Bereavement. University of Southern Maine Continuing Education Dept., Mar 27, 2002, Kandyce Powell.
- * Ethics and Pain Management. Hospice Volunteers of Kennebec Valley, Apr 6, 2002. Kandyce Powell
- * Pain Management. Living with Cancer Conference, May 1, 2002. Kandyce Powell.
- * Hospice Today: Thoughts for the Future. Keynote presentation at Hospice Volunteers of Waldo County, May 11, 2002. Kandyce Powell.
- * Palliative Care. University of Maine at Augusta, June 6, 2002. Kandyce Powell
- * Spirituality of Hope. Nevola Conference, Waterville, June 11, 2002. Kandyce Powell
- * Hospice & Palliative Care: An Alternative to Assisted Suicide. St. Anselm's College, June 13, 2002, Laurel Coleman and Kandyce Powell.
- * Hospice & End-of-Life Issues. University of Maine at Augusta, June 18, 2002. Kandyce Powell.
- * Legislative Initiatives Related to End-of-Life Care. Eastern Maine Medical Center, Sep 20, 2002. Kandyce Powell.
- * Personal Death Awareness, Grief, Loss, Transition. Miles Home Health & Hospice, May 28 & Oct 24, 2002. Kandyce Powell
- * Hospice. University of New England, Oct 24, 2002. Kandyce Powell.
- * Facing our Losses. Hospice of York, Nov. 2, 2002. Kandyce Powell.
- * Hospice. University of Maine "Cancer and Society" course, Nov 5, 2002. Kandyce Powell.
- * Bereavement Care as Preventative Medicine. University of Southern Maine, Nov 14, 2002. Kandyce Powell
- * How We Die. Connecting to Cancer Care Conference, Portland, Nov 21, 2002. Kandyce Powell.

NOTES:

* Denotes first time listing

- * Hospice Today – Thoughts for the Future. Maine Funeral Director's Association, Dec. 7, 2002. Kandyce Powell.

WWW, ELECTRONIC MEDIA AND AUDIO-VISUALS

World Wide Web

www.MCPCH.org

* www.MaineHospiceCouncil

* www.MaineCenterforEndofLifeCare.Info

Audio-Visuals

- * Video on how HOPE has changed the view of 2nd year medical students (MPEG included on CD)

NEWS CONFERENCES, BRIEFINGS, AND NEWS RELEASES/PACKETS

Legislation

- * Public Law 439: Comprehensive End of Life Care Legislation.

News Conferences and Briefings

Press conference regarding Medic Alert Program in Maine. September 2000.

News Releases/Packets

A press release announcing "How We Die" and Interfaith Dialogue in Issues at the End of Life. Maine Council of Churches and MCPCH.

A national press release from MedicAlert announcing "MedicAlert Launches National Repository for End-of-Life Medical Directives".

A press release announcing "Maine Medical Groups Endorse New End of Life patient Care Service". Maine Osteopathic Association, Maine Medical Association, Maine Hospital Association.

A press release announcing "Pieces of Hope: How Pediatric Hospice Supports Dying Children, Their Families and Communities". The Jason Program annual conference.

NOTES:

* Denotes first time listing

- * Letter from Bureau of Health awarding the Maine Center for End of Life Care to the Maine Hospice Council.
- * Formal letter notifying MHC that the council has been selected by Channel Six to be a featured non-profit on their Many Hands program (for January 2002).
- * Channel Six News (local) broadcast an exposé on a medical student visiting a hospice patient.
- * Article on Medical Student Hospice rotation. MaineLink.

MASS MEDIA, PROFESSIONAL, OR WORLD WIDE WEB COVERAGE

Print Coverage

- "'Moyers on Dying': a 'guide to mortality'". Portland Press Herald, Sep. 8, 2000.
- "Deathbed directives a phone call away". Portland Press Herald, Sep. 8, 2000.
- Due to the pending Physician Assisted Suicide Referendum and work of the Medical Marijuana Task Force (legislation passed in 1999), press coverage of non-political end-of-life issues and projects was minimal.
- * Interview with Michael More by Bangor Daily News regarding Hospice Issues. Augusta 7, 2001.

Television

- * End of Life Issues television show taping. August 6, 2001. Kandyce Powell and David Madore.

NOTES:

- * Denotes first time listing